Singer Jami Smith to lead worship at Church of the Good Shepherd

Nationally-recognized singer Jami Smith will be at the Church of the Good Shepherd on September 14 for a combined worship service.

She is one of the premier worship leaders in the country. For more than 15 years, Smith has traveled the world using music as a tool to help believers connect with the Lord.

She still lives within 60 minutes of her hometown of Chickasha. Smith regularly partners with her younger brother, Ryan Smith, to write songs. Their most recent collaboration is featured on Smith's recent release, VERSE. Jami and her husband, Justin, have two children, Emory Grace and Griffin Thomas.

The worship service at 11:00 will combine the Generations and Contemporary congregations in the Christian Life Center.

For Our Visitors

Welcome to Good Shepherd!

If today is your first Sunday with us, please stop by the desk near the entrance and pick up a First Time Visitor card with information on all our church has to offer. We're glad to have you worship with us today!

It's Fall-Kick-off Sunday!

Join us in the Christian Life Center (CLC) after services today for a church-wide Picnic and Talent Show. Cost for the Picnic is $5 for adults, $3 for kids (12 & under), $15 for a family—quite a bargain, and more fun than going out. Visit with old friends, and meet & greet new friends. A Talent Show will be held during the proceedings; we have quite a few very gifted individuals and groups in our church, so be there to listen in!

Sunday Morning Classes Begin

The Discoverers Sunday morning class, led by Alan Childers in room C3 from 9:45-10:45 am, invites you to join us as we begin viewing and discussing, "Free Market Jesus" by Donald Miller. The average American encounters more than 3,000 advertisements each day. The formula for most ads are:

1. You are not happy.
2. You will be happy if you purchase this product.

How has this overwhelming commercial message shaped our view of spirituality, the church and Jesus? In free market Jesus, Donald Miller illustrates how culture always serves as a lens for our understanding of Christianity. He then addresses how scripture defines spirituality and why the scripture is still relevant in our modern culture.

The New Beginnings Sunday morning class, led by Larry Edwards and meets in the Library (C4) from 9:45-10:45 am, invites you to join a study of "Proverbs, Ecclesiastes and Song of Songs" beginning Sept. 7th. Join us as we explore what the Bible says and means to our lives.

The Messenger Sunday morning class, led by David Morgan and meets 9:45-10:45 am in the Parlor, room C1, invites you to explore the "Feasts of the Bible" beginning this morning. Join us as we explore the Hebrew roots of Christianity and discover the symbolism that points to Jesus.

Church Garage Sale Coming Up!

Church-wide Garage Sale is Saturday, Oct. 11 from 9:00 am to 2:00 pm. Please start setting aside your donations for this event. We have set a goal to raise $5,000 to go towards paying off the newly purchased church van. Please help us attain this goal. If you have any questions, contact Sue Corbin at 202-3390 or susieq48@cox.net.

Please silence your cell phone before service begins
